Dedication

We, the Hornet Staff of 1964, dedicate this yearbook to Mr. James B. Ashwell, who is a 1947 graduate of HHS, and has fostered the spirit of sports, especially football, since he came here eight years ago. He has helped in the building of character not only among his students and players, but also among all students of Herndon. Mr. Ashwell's coaching ability has been recognized in two ways. One, as he was named Coach-of-the-Year in the Northwestern District Group 1-B after he led the Hornets to a District Championship. Second, as in his seven years of coaching the HHS varsity football team he has compiled a record of 47-16-3. He has also led the team to four district championships in those seven years. He is also an assistant track coach, sponsor of the Varsity Club, a Herndon businessman, and is in charge of the spring basketball league.

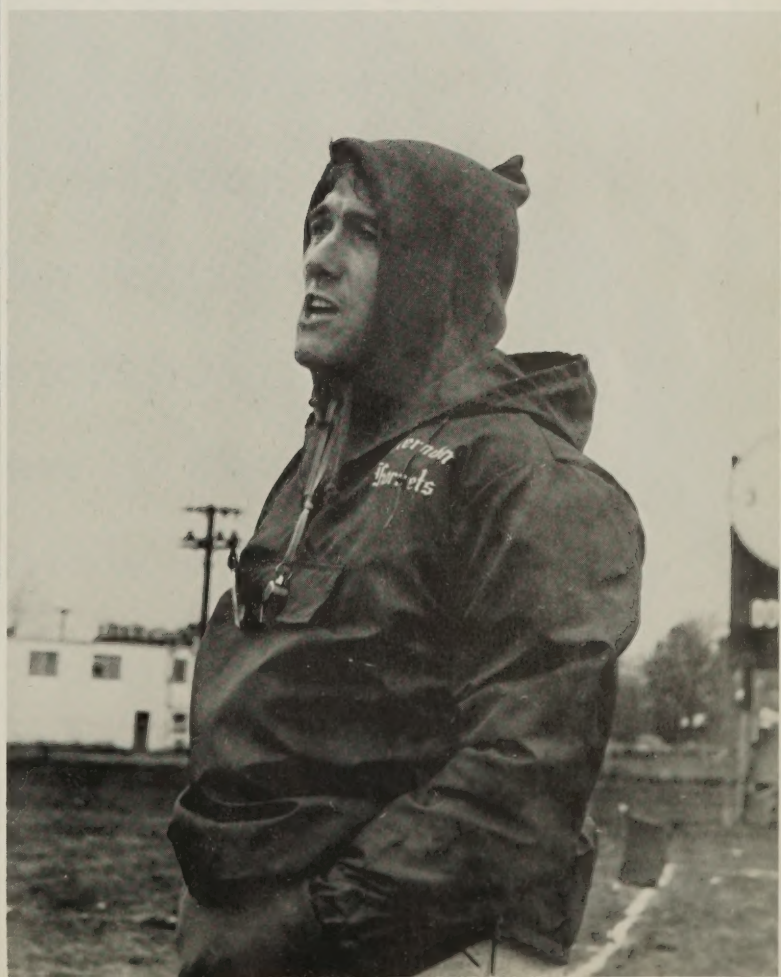

Do it this way boys!

All right you guys!

Foreword

Here is your yearbook!
We, the Hornet Staff, have had it almost a year and now it is yours.

With our school year
swiftly closing, we pause to catch a final glimpse of the happiness and friends
we've made. Many things have happened this year
that we shall never forget.

The 1964 Hornet is yours.
You made it; we preserved
it through words and pictures.

The years have swiftly flown by us and all we have left are memories.

We entered Herndon High School in the fall of 1959 thus becoming a part of the high school. We soon got into the jive of things and started to make a name for ourselves;

Time marched on and before we knew it we were juniors. We had begun to realize what being a part of H. H. S. really was. We started making plans to raise money so we could give the Prom in the spring. That night turned out to be Some Enchanted Evening. As our junior year rushed to a close, we hardly had time to realize that next year we would be on the top - then our class rings reminded us that we would be Seniors.

It has finally happened. At last we are on the top.

This year was marked by special Senior privileges and our football team became champions. All that is left now is the look forward to the prom, Senior banquet, Baccalaureate, and Graduation.

Even now it is hard to realize that one life at Herndon High is ending and it will be even harder to forget.

District Football Champs 1963

This season, 1963, was a great year for football at H. H. S. The Varsity team finished with a very respectable 7-2 record. Our only losses were to James Monroe, a 1-B team from Fredricksburg and to W. T. Woodson, a county 1-A school. In the district we were 6-0 with wins over Loudoun County, Loudoun Valley, Fauquier County, Handley, James Wood, and arch-rival George Mason. At the close of the season the Hornets were rated as one of the top 1-B teams in the state.

In individual player honors, Herndon came out far ahead of the rest of the league. Rusty Hatton gained honors as the Washington Post's "Player-of-the-Week" from Virginia after his excellent performance against James Wood, and as a member of the All-Metropolitan team and All-District. George Dawson and Herbie Haines were also named to the All-District team. Coach James Ashwell was chosen as Coach-of-the-Year in our league.

This year the Varsity had a good season as they finished with a record of 5-7 in the league and 8-8 overall. Carl Fox, Joey Hite, and Herbie Haines finished one, two, three for the team scoring honors. Carl gave the school individual scoring record a good chase as he scored 34 points in the second Gar-Field game. Bill Butler, Rick Lewis, and Rusty Hatton all played a fine season.

The Hornets started out slowly winning only two of the first eight but came on strong in the second half of the season winning six out of eight. The Hornets are expected to do very well in the district tournament.

The Hornets finished the 1963 season with a 3-8-0 record. Freshman Ricky Mozingo gave the batting average record a serious threat and ended up with .367. The team was quite young with only one senior on the squad. The Hornets should have bright prospects for the '64 season.

SOME ENCHANTED EVENING

Japanese pleasures are timeless. By day, these verdant isles are a paradise of sun. And when the sun goes down, the timeless temples glow with the subtle silver of silent Moonbeams. Majestic Mount Fujiyama reigns in quiet strength over time-ridden land of the Samurai.

The Oriental Night casts a spell all its own. Crystal Seas will sigh for tomorrow, but you have to-night. You are living a few short hours in a far-away land of stars and mist. Lose your thoughts in the light fragrance of cherry blossoms - - Walk through the winding lanes that sleep in the Orient on Some Enchanted Evening.

On February 14, the Junior class held its annual Sadie Hawkins Dance. The week before they sponsored a contest in which each class nominated their contestants for Li'l Abner and Daisy Mae. The Seniors brought in the most votes, and won.

IT'S ACADEMIC

In September, 1963, Herndon High was a participant on the TV show "It's Academic" for the second time. We were represented by Don Wyatt, Dwight Peck, and Frances Mann. The contestants were notified in late August that they were being considered to appear on the program, and they went to appear on the program at the WRC studio before school began, to be screened for the show.

Herndon was opposed by Richard Montgomery and Western High Schools and at the end of the game it looked as Herndon had won by thirty-five points. However, due to a mistake in scorekeeping, it was found that we lost by only five points. All in all it was a fine performance by our representatives.

Friday, November 22, 1963

Friday, November 22, 1963 began as a good day at Herndon High School with a fine assembly and the presentation of a play. It ended as a day that will make us sad forever.

As the first fragmented report from the radio was heard over the PA, the most horrible thought most could have was of an automobile accident. When the announcer said the President had been shot, there were gasps of anguish.

Usually with such an announcement the spirit manages to rally with optimism. Somehow even though the President was not yet dead, hope seemed already gone.

When those dreaded words came, "The President is dead," emotions that could not be expressed in words came out in sobs.

As the students left school this day, there was no laughter, and they shuffled out slowly. Although the wind rustled nearby trees, the flag, which had been thoughtfully lowered, refused to wave and draped around the flag pole like a shroud.

In Memoriam

Teachers and students of Herndon High were greatly saddened this year by the death of Miss Luray Lewis, a member of the faculty and head of the Commercial Department for many years.

She will long be remembered as one who was understanding, always willing to give freely of her time and efforts, and sincerely interested in the progress and welfare of all of her students. Her devotion to duty, loyalty to her friends, and dignity of manner will remain an inspiration to all who knew her.

Farewell

As we pass slowly through these halls that have seen so many come and go, all too quickly we hear the doors of the years past, quietly shutting behind us. We go forth eagerly to open the doors to the future and whatever it may bring.

For when one door is shut, another opens.
